

How do you want to read Contractor?

Great news for subscribers!

In addition to our printed Contractor magazine, you can subscribe to read it online! Even better – 40 years of past issues of Contractor and Quarry & Mining are being archived! You'll have instant results when you search for special features, projects, company profiles or classic machines.

If you'd like the convenience of reading the mag on your smart phone, tablet or laptop, all you need to do is send us an email with 'Digital Edition please!' in the subject line to: admin@contrafed.co.nz We'll send you a simple set of instructions on how to sign in.

There are two ways you can read Contractor once you've registered online; the traditional flipbook, ideal for a desktop computer, or the easy-to-read article view (great for smart phones and tablets).

If you're NOT currently a subscriber please contact us by our email below, or go to our website to subscribe.
